

Hi Mike,
I'm slow, but I'm reliable. This is for your customer comments column.

I was very unsure of buying a car over the internet. Never thought I'd do it, but Mike made it pretty easy. He gave me detailed pictures of the car and a car fax report. I don't like playing games about cars, so I told him what my local dealer would do, and he told me what he could do and before you know it we had a deal. He even got two really nice grumpily old guys to drive it clear to Idaho for me. I did do my homework checking on Archie
Cochrane Ford and on Mike to be sure they were legitimate.
All in all, it was relatively painless, and almost fun.

Thanks Mike

I do like the car. Fun to drive.
